Stocks^2

An online stock trading community software

Controllers

This document serves as brief documentation for the database folder, which contains all user input reactions for the Stocks Squared website. The folder has a main folder and a subfolder (Auth).

Main Folder

Utilizes controllers for login, profile, comment and search functionality, strategy additions, specific role actions and web page interaction.

Auth

Utilizes controllers focused on user authentication, including registration, login, verification, and password actions.